5 'Best Picture' Nominees Available On Demand On Time Warner Cable

LOS ANGELES, CA – Time Warner Cable customers can catch up on five of this year's Best Picture nominees from the comfort of their own living rooms right in time for Sunday's 2010 Academy Awards® ceremony. The films are available On Demand on Time Warner Cable.

“With five nights left before the 2010 Oscar® celebration, Time Warner Cable customers can watch a different Oscar® nominated film each evening, and be fully prepared for Sunday's ceremony,” said Marissa Freeman, SVP of Marketing for Time Warner Cable. “We make it simple and easy for our customers to watch whatever they're in the mood for, whether it's Oscar® nominated films, primetime shows or kids' programming—instantly.”

Award-nominated films available On Demand include: District 9, The Hurt Locker, Inglorious Basterds, A Serious Man and Up.

“If our customers want to see Inglorious Basterds, there's a good chance it's checked out of the video store,” added Freeman. “But it's available in their living rooms instantly On Demand.”

Customers can order these and any other films simply by visiting the On Demand section in their cable guides, or tuning in to Channel 1. For more information about Time Warner Cable's movies on demand, visit www.twondemand.com.
