ANAHEIM DUCKS AND TIME WARNER CABLE ANNOUNCE PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

ANAHEIM, Calif. – The Anaheim Ducks today announced a partnership agreement with Time Warner Cable, making the cable operator the Official Communication Provider to the Anaheim Ducks and Honda Center.

As part of the agreement, Time Warner Cable will present the Home and Away Giveaway running through Jan. 29. Fans will have the opportunity to enter to win a grand prize package consisting of a “Home” VIP Ducks Game Experience and an “Away” Private Ducks Watch Party. The grand prize winner will receive 20 tickets to Anaheim’s Feb. 8 game vs. the Los Angeles Kings at Honda Center, a catered Watch Party featuring a flat screen TV and Sony Bravia Home Entertainment System provided by Time Warner Cable, food by Oggi’s Pizza & Brewery, and Anaheim Ducks Merchandise for 20 people. In addition, 25 runner-up winners will receive Anaheim Ducks Prize Packs. Fans can enter to win via www.AnahaimDucks.com/homeandaway.

“The Anaheim Ducks are thrilled to be partnering with Time Warner Cable in the 2009-10 regular season,” said Ducks Director of Corporate Partnerships Wendy Grover. “The Home and Away Giveaway is a tremendous way to celebrate this partnership and the real winners are the fans of the Anaheim Ducks.”

The partnership also includes Time Warner Cable recognition on Ducks television and radio broadcasts, HondaVision, and AnaheimDucks.com, in Ducks Digest and through Honda Center signage and public address announcements. Time Warner Cable will also be the presenting sponsor of Ducks TV, part of the Anaheim Ducks Hockey Network.

“This partnership makes for a true hat trick for Time Warner Cable, the Anaheim Ducks and the fans,” said Time Warner Cable Regional Marketing Vice President Bill Erickson. “Through this partnership, both Time Warner Cable and the Anaheim Ducks will have an opportunity to honor the fans, the team and introduce Anaheim Duck and hockey fans alike to the great products and services that Time Warner Cable offers.”
